

Illinois Fire Service Institute

Explorer-Cadet Field Training

Frankfort Fire Dept.

Training Overview:

This is a One Day training session laying the foundation for basic fire fighting skills and "hands on" activities of an Explorer. Beginning with personal safety, fire behavior, the hands-on fundamentals of utilizing self contained breathing apparatus, forcible entry, search and rescue, ladder raising and climbing skills as well as hose loads and advances.

NOTE: Protective Clothing Required -- Participants must furnish approved helmet, turn out gear, eye protection, gloves, SCBA and boots for this class.

Location: 24420 S Lagrange Rd, Frankfort, IL. 60423

Date: November 3, 2012 Time: 08:00 - 17:00

Registration Fee: FREE

Lunch : $7.00

Registration forms can be located at the IFSI website

Enrollment is Limited!

If you have questions surrounding this training, you are encouraged to contact:

Tim Meister, East Central Illinois Regional Rep-IFSI (217-202-4760)

or

Brian Adcock, Frankfort FD@ 815-469-1700 Ext. 7124